

The AlpInnoCT consortium is pleased to invite you to participate in the project's Final Conference – Working together for Combined Transport in the Alpine Space

After intense debates and demonstration of innovations, countless workshops and dialogue events to collect input from all relevant stakeholders, hours and hours of debating recommendations for an efficient and low-carbon Combined Transport across the Alpine Space, it is now time for a reality-check and discuss our project results with EU policy makers and experts in Brussels. Get involved into the discussion!
